Lift up your heads, O ye mighty gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors, that the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Strong and mighty, he is the King. Lift up your heads, O ye mighty gates, for behold, he comes, the Savior waits. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosannas we bring, that ancient song we sing to the Son of David...Who is this King of glory? The Lord of Hosts, he is the King!

ANTHEM.....The Chancel Choir

Pieta'.....Joseph Martin
In the shadow of a manger, by a candle's dancing flame, tender Mary holds her baby, and she breathes His holy name.
"Jesus rest your weary head, close your weeping eyes".
As evening falls, she starts to sing a lullaby. "Lu-lay, Lu-lay, peace be yours tonight."
In the shadow of the temple, in a place so far from home,
Mary sees her child of wonder, and she marvels how He's grown.
"Jesus rest your weary head, and think on gentle things".
With loving arms she holds her Savior and she sings, "Lu-lay, Lu-lay, peace be yours tonight".
In the shadow of Golgotha, underneath a darkened sky, Mary gently cradles Jesus.
Through her tears she says goodbye. "Jesus rest your weary head. Your work on earth is done".
And as the darkness falls, she whispers to her son, "Lu-Lay, Lu-Lay peace be yours tonight."

We have moved from the celebration of Palm Sunday to the somber events of Holy Week.
There will be no postlude as we depart.
